The difference your help makes:

MT. was living in temporary hotel accommodation with her three children, two of them in secondary school. Keen to keep up the children's school attendance she was struggling to get together the money needed to provide school uniform and equipment for her children. "The school is unable to help, and they are currently managing on the weekly home office allowance of £8.86 per person in her family". Award £130. As always, thank you very much. This grant means such a lot to our clients and goes such a long way. Best wishes & many thanks, Islington Centre for Refugees.

Thank you so much for supporting my client! Just letting you know that the grant has been received, and the client has greatly benefitted from it already, and is so appreciative. Thank you for all the work that you do! All the best, In-house Support Worker, Women at the Well, Birmingham

Thank you so much for your generous grant support. This will be truly transformational for the client, and it will make a meaningful difference in their life. Please know that your support is helping to create real, positive change. Karmabank London

Poverty relief in the UK

Fund for Human Need

One-off relief payments to tide people over when they are destitute and desperate.

100% of donations used for poverty relief

FHN was founded in 1960 by people who believed they had a responsibility to heed Jesus' commands and offer help to the poorest and most needy people. Since 2000 the focus of FHN's work has been on making grant payments to some of the most vulnerable in the United Kingdom. Of the many applications received each month, 15% come from individuals and 85% come from front-line organisations supporting destitute clients.

Not just giving money but giving love, hope, trust, self-esteem and confidence.

Payments are made irrespective of faith, ethnic origin or social group to:

- Those who are homeless and hungry
- People whose benefits have been stopped, or who have to wait 5 weeks or more for them to start
- Refugees and asylum seekers living one day to the next
- Ex-prisoners trying to rebuild their lives
- Those with mental health issues
- Those whose relationships have broken down

FHN where a little means a lot

All over the United Kingdom, our relief payments directly benefit the lives of over 1,300 adults a year providing for basic needs of food and other living essentials, including fuel.
Currently FHN receives applications to help approximately 1800 people each year, including 500 children and 200 homeless persons.
By working with partner organisations, we assist many asylum seekers/refugees.

None of this is possible without your support.

RD bravely took her 2 children and left a violent and controlling partner, the only way to escape was to not return after a trip to the local shops.
This meant she arrived at a shelter with nothing other than the clothes she and the children had on, no personal effects and she had in fact left behind lots of family items.
The hostel was able to help with clothing and eventually with police help she was able to retrieve some of her personal and family bits and pieces. Awaiting her universal credit (6 weeks minimum), with her goods in storage she applied to us to help pay for basic necessities, her phone and the storage fees.

Award £110.

I have received this, thank you so much for sending it, it has been such a challenging time with very little support from anyone but yourselves. Truly, thank you so much.
